PRINCIPAL E. MICHAELSON

Eighth grade is always an exciting year in the life of a student. You are perched on the precipice of high school, while still enjoying the warmth and security of middle school. This yearbook is a chronicle of your time in middle school, one that you will look back upon, in years to come, with laughter and enjoyment.

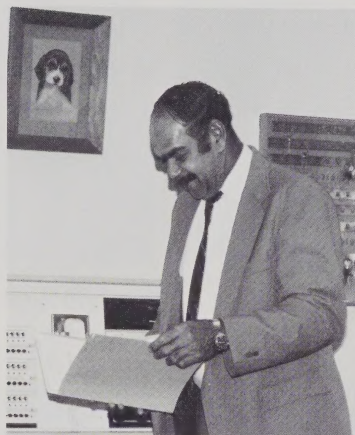

Congratulations on your accomplishment. Make sure that this is the first of several graduations to come. Your education is a prize that will steer the course of your life for many years. Stay in focus, work hard, and enjoy the fruits of your labor.

DON'T QUIT (ANONYMOUS)

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you are trudging
seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down
a bit,
Rest, if you must--but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists
and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace
seems slow--
You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured
the victor's cup.
And he learned too late, when
the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out--
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt--
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit-- It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

"I'LL DO FOR YOU"

In blue and white, our cheerleaders edged our basketball teams and fans into furies of victory. The "Bart Simpson" dance reeled our teams' energies to do for Maxson as the cheerleaders did for school spirit . . . to get the job done!

Patricia Brent, Latoya Bush, June Daves, Karen Gaines, Shakirah Griffin, Sheron Hall, Alexis Hunter, Michele Lewis, Elizabeth Miller, Kira Morgan, Takia Roney, Pam Persuad, Andrea Todman. Advisor — Mrs. S Andrews

“SHOOTING STARS”

Was it the sign of the times? Libra, (Sandra Battle), Gemini, (Gemeta DeCosey), Scorpio, (Raven Green), Capricorn (Leah Prescott) reached basketball stardom on our girl's 1991 basketball team. The seventh grade stars Talibah Bryant, Aquita Brown, Maci Mosely, Joelle Ebron, and Cordina Humphries will keep us gazing into their future games.

Scorpio, (Tasheen Harris), a seventh grader, highlighted the team's outstanding record with an average of 10-11 baskets per game.

Coach Paula Curry and a winning streak made our girls shine their talents as a true galaxy of spirit in the 90's!

Managers — Marlisa McDonald and Carla Walker

“THE RIGHT ONES . . .”

Maxson certainly had the “right thing” for a 1991 basketball team.

A winning season set our team’s hopes on prospects of U.N.L.V. Players such as Thomas Young, Arthur Barnes, Rahman Forshee, and Sean Covington kept dunking averages of 13-14 baskets per game. Robert Austin, Lance Rice, Anthony Lazarus and Lydell Mitchell gave their all in supportive plays of the season.

Coach Hunter surely knew how to pick the “RIGHT ONES” . . . uh huh, uh huh!

Team Managers — Luis Perez and Al Rodriquez

TEEN SUMMIT

Growing up in the 90's among the vices of the homeless epidemic, drugs, foreign wars and unsettled educational efforts makes this a difficult world to grow up in. Ms. Minatee's newly formed "rap group" offered alternatives to students at Maxson. Students met on Tuesdays to exchange concerns, view points, and hopes on issues of divorce, death, sex, drugs, and career goals, just to name a few. Students that participated, anxiously awaited to hear the speakers, counselors and one another. "TEEN SUMMIT" highlighted our hearts and helped our minds in "NINETY-ONE."

EMERGING . . .

Our first annual African-American Festival united the students, parents, community and staff in a unique celebration of Black History month. Maxson's student council and honor society commemorated many phases of the Black culture in an array of displays, musical presentations, a parade of inventors and colorful African attire. Community vendors displayed and sold literature, artwork, jewelry, and African garb. The tempting aromas and mouth-watering samples of southern dishes were purchased for a taste of the culture. Mr. R. Underwood adorned our festival with red, green and black motifs.

The festive occasion under the direction of Ms. S. Minatee and Mrs. R. Holliday encouraged many to keep their "Eyes on the Prize" in the uplifting of African American heritage.
